EPISCOPAL OFFICE DESCRIPTION

Office of the Bishop

(a) A Bishop shall appoint the Preachers to charges annually and that appointment shall become effective 30 days from the close of the Annual Conference or wherever such appointment is announced. Such advanced notice shall only be abrogated with the mutual consent of the Pastor involved in the transfer. A 60-day notification will be given for changes of appointments, except in extreme circumstances.

(b) The Bishop shall appoint Pastors upon the consideration of their abilities, training and experiences. An appointment shall be valid until the convening of the next Annual Conference and can only be changed by the mutual consent of the Bishop and the Pastor or for either judicial causes and or the immediate good of the congregation as expressed in writing by the Board of Stewards. Efforts should be made to reach mutual consent before such a change is made. However, the failure to do so shall not prevent the Bishop from making an appointment. To maintain our commitment to itinerancy, a Pastor is permitted to serve a charge as long as their ministry is profitable to the congregation, unless there is a need for their service at another congregation. Pastors shall be appointed to charges by the Bishop for one year at a time, but may be allowed to remain in a charge for as long as the Bishop sees fit.

(c) A Bishop shall not appoint any Preacher to a pastoral charge who is not a subscriber to our official periodicals.

4. To change in the interim of the Annual Conference, the appointments of the Preachers as necessity may require.
5. To receive and transfer Ministers according to law, the Bishop will not transfer a Preacher from one Conference to another without the Minister's consent.
6. A Bishop shall travel throughout the entire Episcopal District to which they are assigned to oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of the work.
7. To expand the Church through missions and evangelism by establishing new churches and enlisting local Bishops support for world mission.
8. To provide each Annual Conference with a program of instruction and inspiration emphasizing the necessity of evangelism.
9. To consecrate Bishops who have been elected by the General Conference, to ordain Deacons and Elders who have been elected by the Annual Conference and furnish them with credentials.
10. To decide all questions of law in the Annual Conference subject to an appeal to the General Conference, but the application of law shall in all cases be with the Annual Conference.
11. To appoint Presiding Elders over District for the efficiency of the work.
12. To sit as judge when appealed to by a Minister convicted by a trial committee and to call and preside over the Court of Appeals for a Minister convicted by an Annual Conference.
13. To see that no one is elected a delegate to the General Conference who is not entitled to that privilege according to law.
14. The Bishop and Annual Conference shall stress the importance of the mission conferences section of Zion's Benefit Services and urge deeper interest in a more loyal support of superannuated ministers, widows, and orphans.
